

Acting Associate Professor, Candidate of Philosophy
Kulenova Inkar

Education:

1977-1981 Karaganda Music College named after Tattimbeta, specialty: piano, qualification: BSM teacher, accompanist;

1981-1987 Almaty State Conservatory named after Kurmangazy, specialty: piano, qualification: teacher, accompanist, soloist of chamber ensemble;

2006 Candidate of Philosophical Sciences (Al-Farabi Kazakh National University).

Work experience:

1987-1992 Teacher of the “Piano” department of the Shymkent Pedagogical Institute of Culture named after al-Farabi;

1992-1996 Senior teacher of the “Oner” department of the Shymkent Pedagogical Institute of Culture named after al-Farabi;

1996-2007 Senior Lecturer at the Department of Music Theory and Piano, SKSU named after M. Auezova;

2007-2013 Associate Professor of the "Oner" Department of SKSU named after M. Auezova;

2013-2015 Head of the Department of Music Education, South Kazakhstan State Pedagogical Institute;

From 2015 onwards. O. Associate Professor of the Department of "Music Education" SKGPI, SKGPU, SKPU named after O. Zhanibekov

Achievements:

2006 Candidate of Philosophical Sciences;

2009 "The best associate professor at SKSU named after M. Auezov."

2012 delivering lectures on the “history of piano art in Kazakhstan” for students, teaching staff and Ph.D. of the Faculty of Music at New York University.

2013 Republican Forum of Innovative Teachers, nomination "Best Case", II degree diploma (group work).

Awards:

2020 anniversary badge “80 years of SKSPU”.